ADVERTISEMENT.

IN preparing the present General Catalogue of THE SIGNET LIBRARY no labour has been spared to ensure accuracy. The titles of the books are in general fully given, and due attention has been paid to avoid ascribing the works of one author to another of the same name. The Alphabetical Order has been adopted as the only practical form that is really useful in a large Library.

According to the plan adopted and sanctioned by the Curators, the Catalogue will consist of Three Parts or Volumes, to be issued successively. The present Part includes letters A to L. The Second Part will carry on the Alphabet, from M to Z. The THIRD PART or SUPPLEMENTAL VOLUME will contain, in Separate Divisions:—

- I. The Books Omitted or recently Added to the Library, during the progress of the Catalogue.
- II. List of a Numerous Collection of Pamphlets, arranged and bound in volumes, chiefly according to subjects.
- III. List of Manuscripts in the Library, chiefly connected with the Law of Scotland.
- IV. A General Index of Subjects in Connexion with the General Catalogue.

Some account of the Formation and Progressive State of the Library may, for the present, be reserved.

DAVID LAING, Librarian.

1629. It was reserved for JOHN BOLLANDUS to commence its publication, and he found it indispensable to associate with himself men remarkable for learning and research, such as Fathers Geoffrey Henschen and Daniel Papebrochius. In the course of 150 years the Society of Bollandists had carried on the work to the 14th day of October, in 53 volumes, being arranged according to the months and days of the year; so that under each day all the Saints may be found that are included in the Roman Calendar. After an interruption of nearly half a century, the work has been resumed under the sanction of the Belgian Government, and the five additional volumes have carried on the series to the 26th of October.
